

pas-
sus-
Sis-
, Jo-
erth,
kley,
eali,
erer

f

vices
week
d may
Consent-
, Co-sday,

tolst,
the will
Bap-
the ver-
Rev.
tor.

C
H

M
of te
M S
C h

W M

M
h

V
E
M S I
C h i
S

J
t
i v
o

THE FESTIVAL of the Fine and Performing Arts got off to an impressive beginning at SUNY College on Sunday with an art exhibition by illustrator Paul Lantz, shown at Sunday afternoon reception in upstairs gallery. More than 200 persons were present to view the group of eight paintings and a collection of illustrations from children's magazines by Mr. Lantz. Some of the paintings were Schoharie county scenes, familiar to many. Exhibit is open through the next Sunday. Mr. Lantz' style is truly realistic and the direct antithesis

Night

DuMonds Plan